Writing Sequence

6. Drafting, editing and redrafting

Pupils draft, edit and redraft their final piece of writing before writing their final piece.

1. Immersion in high quality literature

Pupils read a range of texts in the genre being studied, providing rich language models and structures.

5.Planning

Pupils plan their final piece of writing applying skills learnt during the teaching sequence.

2. Text Analysis

Pupils indetify genre specific language and features and application to writing.

3. Grammar, vocabulary and language teaching

Pupils study the language and grammar structures appropriate for the audience, purposes and forms of the writing genre.